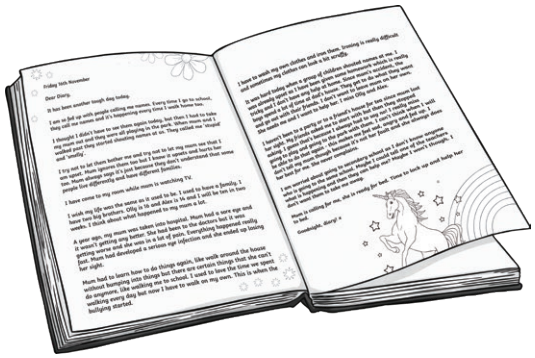
My First Day


Imagine it is the end of your first day at secondary school. It's been a really great day and everything went just as you hoped it would. Write an entry in your diary about how the day went.