

	EYFS	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Christianity	(Not religion specific) To know that people have different beliefs and traditions and we can respect this whilst not agreeing or celebrating them in our own lives. To know that most celebrations involve food, lights, friends and families, special clothes and gift giving. To know that different families celebrate in different ways and we can respect that difference. To listen to and understand stories with meaning and messages about how people should behave.	To know that Christmas is a celebration of Jesus' Birth and Easter celebrates his death. To know that Christians believe that Jesus is the son of God To know that A cross is a symbol of Christianity To know that Christians believe that God created the world. To know that Christians may worship in a church. To know that The bible is the Christian holy book. To know that Jesus was kind and helped people.	To know that Christians pray to god at home or in church.	To know that Christians believe that Jesus was able to perform miracles. The stories about his miracles can be found in the bible. To know that Jesus' miracles include curing people who were ill, feeding the 5000 and walking on water. To know that The bible is in two main parts: the Old Testament and the new testament.	To know that Christians believe in forgiveness and that Jesus died to forgive their sins. To know that Sins are bad acts or thoughts.	To know that Jerusalem is a significant place for christians to visit on pilgrimage.	To know that The bible states that the world was created by God. To know that Christians believe that when they die they will go to heaven. To know that Some Christians believe that if we don't live a good life they won't go to heaven.
Islam	To explore how they and others are feeling. To make sense of their own family and life story.	To know that Muslims may wear a hijab and other special clothes to show their faith.	To know that Muslims may pray 5 times a day, facing Mecca and must wash first. To know that Ramadan and Eid are important celebrations in Islam. To know that The Islamic holy book is the Qu'ran To know that Muslims may worship in a mosque.	To know that Know the five pillars of Islam and what they mean for Muslims in daily life.	To know that It is forbidden to depict the Prophet Mohammad in any form. Islamic art is based on shape and pattern rather than landscapes, people and animals.	To know that Hajj is a pilgrimage to Mecca.	To know that The Qu'ran states that Allah created the world.
Judaism				To know that The Torah is very similar to the Old testament and in Hebrew. To know that Jewish people do not believe Jesus was the son of God.	To know that Jewish prayer takes place in a synagogue. To know that The Torah is kept in the Ark and must be handled carefully and with respect. To know that Shabbat takes place on Friday at sunset until Saturday at Sunset.	To know that Bar and Bat Mitzvahs are important rites of passage for Jewish children.

Non-Abrahamic faiths		To know that Hindus and Buddhists may wear special clothes for celebrations.	To know that Hindu prayer is puja and often involves offering gifts, lighting candles and washing before prayer.	To know that Diwali is a festival of lights for Hindus. To know that Hindus believe in more than one god / goddess and that these represent different aspects of the human experience. To know that hindus follow the	To know that Buddhists follow the teachings of Buddha. To know that Buddha was a person and is not a god. To know the main points of the buddhist eightfold path.
Humanism		To know that Charity means helping others in need. To know that not everyone follows a faith or religion.					To know that there is a scientific / non faith based idea of how the universe was formed. To know that a person can choose not to be a person of faith and do what they feel is right for them as a human being.
Christmas		To know that Christmas is a celebration of Jesus' Birth. To know and Order events in the Nativity. To know that The three wise men and shepherds brought gifts for Jesus and that is why we give gifts at Christmas.	To know that Advent is the period leading up to Christmas and is a time of reflection and preparation.	To know that Christmas can be cultural / secular and religious.	To know that the two different versions of the Nativity in the bible have been amalgamated to form the Nativity performed in many schools and churches.		To know that Christmas traditions vary around the world and we can respect those differences and make our own traditions. .
Easter		To know that Easter celebrates Jesus' death and symbolises new life. To know that Lent leads up to Easter and is a time of reflection and 'giving up' the negative.	To know that Holy week was the week in which Jesus was captured and then crucified on the cross before being resurrected and going to heaven.
The role of faith in culture and society.		People wear clothes that symbolise shared beliefs, ideals and customs even if not religious To know that we can have different beliefs and opinions and respect those of others. .	To know that names are a way of showing belonging, and often reflect religious beliefs or traditions.	To know that religion has made history in the way that it has made people act.	To know that religion influences art, music and culture in different countries.	To know that the culture and customs of different countries are influenced by the dominant religions and it is important to respect them even if they are not your own.	To know that faith is only part of what makes somebody a good person.